

WITH THE FREAKS

I wasn't tired I took the keys and went out to ride
I never met him never felt it never ever tried
And he was fired up and hung up in the local dive
In the shadows, I know what he knows, we go back
Sitting here I want to swim in the water in the middle of the night

And maybe you'll paint me baby
In blue streaks on the beach

Had a headache, had a cupcake and a purple lighter
Felt the earthquake made my heart break it backfired
Hit me hello we go way back we go fast

And maybe you'll paint me baby
In blue streaks on the beach

At midnight at the traffic light as we drive to the beach
Mystic firelight
We're staying over night until the twilight with all the freaks

You're the King and I'm the Queen and he's the Friar
And we hold hands and dive right down into the satire
Fit me you really fit me hijack feedback I'll be back

Maybe you'll paint me

THE TWISTING

Four o'clock blue light on the fields
Red hat backpack black crow backdrop Alps it's surreal
Six tightly wrapped haystacks attract me
I climb up to sit and think and cross my heels

Starry night red moon above the twisting
You can tell me anything cuz I'm listening
These times are strained no champagne
But there's no sense in blame no resent
Just fire to keep persisting

Stillness stops dog barks white snow patch
Striped cat slips through the crack
In an act to conceal
Realities built on fallacies deconstruct and show
The classic tale between good and evil
It's all revealed

Starry night red moon above the twisting
You can tell me anything cuz I'm listening
These times are strained no champagne
But there's no sense in blame no resent

17 RHYMES

Seven rhymes and seventeen times everywhere I went saw good signs
Got your letter glad you settled made me feel so much better
Not your kind but on your mind trying times undying lies
But how's the weather in the nether grab my hand let's go together

Out of your cage the one you made
You find some time to tell some lies look in my eyes look at the skies
Get ready to jump on the train
Now trying to climb in warning lights shining
The thrill is what it became

Instead of inviting you go into hiding
You wouldn't take any blame and now it's pouring rain

Sadness binds and anger winds me up with my unread replies
Soft as a feather so whatever got a customized oppressor
I do unwind but not on time when out I climb outside my mind
I start to measure this endeavor now I've got to find my clever

Out of your rage out of the shade
You find some time to tell some lies look in my eyes look at the skies
Get ready to jump on the train
Now trying to climb in warning lights shining
The thrill is what it became

Instead of inviting you end up igniting
You say I'm not at all tame
You know I don't play the game and now I'm faced with what it became
I can't find it anywhere

EAT THIS

And I said I'm running and I heard her coming and they told me not to
And I hear the fanfare and I slept the night there while they rigged the hardware
And they told me not to eat this at home and they told me not to drink this alone

And I'm finding out here how we need to stack here going down the hollow
And I don't want a nightmare awaken somewhere elsewhere that purple pill she swallowed
And they told me not to eat this at home and they told me not to drink this alone

Come to a grinding halt here but they have all got no fear going down the sorrow
I know you do care I know you do dare and why I wallow I don't know

And now they're right about near just close your eyes dear we're going down the hollow

And they told me not to eat this at home and they told me not to drink this alone

THE AFTERMATH

I put my fake eyelashes on get ready getting ready to blaze the dawn
I feel like the summer was somehow wrong
In the corridor on the second floor elevator comes While you were lying there I got to thinking about the laws that keep repeating
And how I finally seem to be agreeing with it all

You called me up to tell me that I'm fun
I don't know why you bother doing this because we're done
In the end I'm just someone you used to talk about and dream about but now
I'm numb
While you were lying there I got to thinking about the flaws in me that keep repeating
And how I finally seem to be meeting and believing in my call

I'm so brave I never thought that I'd go up and down and all around Till it's bright green sound
Everywhere you go the audio is gonna blow you all around

Give me 10 give me 20 give me honey give me plenty
Give me happy give me funny give me 10 give me nothing

I put my fake eyelashes on is this a remedy an identity to play along
Is this a song
I was lying there and I was believing that the world was good and even
No longer a need to keep grieving it was flung

Taking my time away to have some fun
I call it sanity refashioning everyone
Pack my lightening diamonds to see the sun
They'll shine everywhere light up everyone
And I was lying there and I was feeling this kind of peace a kind of healing
Staring up at the ceiling singing this song

BIRDS

In tennis shoes outside
With coffee I recline
To have some peace before I leave
To busy streets and concrete scenes

Little highs in tennis shoes outside
Two minutes more I lie, watch the birds fly by They're just being, God that's freeing
Now they're singing sweet sweet sweetly

Move through bruises and seasons
We all have our reasons
Blue moods start me singing
We all have our reasons

I CAN'T GET STARTED

I've flown around the world entertained
Thought up illusions changed my name
The North Sea I have parted but I just can't get started with you

Tried my hand at guitar
Acted like a movie star
Bought me a house a nice nice place but I don't get no place with you

You're such a dream
Poems I write of you beam at the very sight of you Stream sad songs is all I ever do because it helps me through

In 2019 I knocked at your door
You know I'm not just a simple troubadour
But you're so guarded that I just can't get started with you
